2014 Rocky Mountain Academy of Occupational and Environmental Medicine
“Back – The Basics, Emerging Issues and Other Occupational and Preventive Medicine Matters”
January 31st – February 1st, 2014

Day 1
7:00 - 8:00  Check-In and Continental Breakfast
8:00 - 8:15  Welcome (Kathy Bird)
8:15 - 8:30  Evidence Based Treatment of Low Back Injuries – John Hughes
8:30 - 9:30  Deconstructing the Low Back Exam – Rip Mobus
9:30 - 10:30 Getting High and Low: Altitude and Dive Medicine Emergencies – Scott Primack
10:00 - 10:15 BREAK
10:15 - 11:30 TBD – Goldman, Sacha
11:30 - 12:15 Panel TBD - Goldman, Sacha
12:15 - 1:15 LUNCH
1:15-2:15  New Treatment Recommendations for Low Back and Cervical Spine Care: Colorado Division of Workers Compensation - Kathryn Mueller
2:15-3:15  Occupational Exposures to Respirable Crystalline Silica During Hydraulic Fracturing - Eric Esswein
3:15-3:45 BREAK
3:45-5:00 Resident presentations:
Using Digital Storytelling to Education Employers about Chronic Disease and the aging workforce - Brian Williams
Work processes, Exposures, and Spectrum of Clinical Findings in 8 Workers from a Pet Food Manufacturing Facility - Kimberly Siegel
Indoor Air Quality: An Investigation into a Unique Building - James Moses
Reception to Follow

Day 2
7:00 – 8:00  RMA Member Meeting and Breakfast
8:00 – 9:00  Improve your outcomes/pain management and utilization review - Frank Polanco
9:00 – 10:00 Getting High and Low – Altitude and Dive Medicine Emergencies - Tracy Cushing
10:00 - 10:15 BREAK
10:15 - 11:15 Safety Sensitive Positions with Colorado’s Open Marijuana – Tom Kurt
11:15 - 12:15 Opioids - Kurt Hegman